On Tuesday we were lucky enough to have a live session from Yorkshire Water about water safety. We learnt the meaning of SAFE which means Stay away from the Edge. We can tell an adult which number to call if someone falls in the water and needs rescuing.

We have been consolidating our learning on positional language. In our fairy garden we worked together to build a fairy town and then described where objects had been placed.

On Tuesday we were lucky enough to have a live session from Yorkshire Water about water safety. We learnt the meaning of SAFE which means Stay away from the Edge. We are now aware of the dangers posed by open water, with cold water shock, and hidden undercurrents all posing a risk to our safety. We looked at beach flags and understand what they mean. We know the important phone number that we can call if there is a water emergency. Please ask your child.

Year 3/4

This week, our weeks of rehearsals culminated in the York Schools Choral Festival at York University. We took part in singing workshops, learned all about Gamelan (traditional Indonesian ensemble music performed on percussion) and took part in an incredible performance involving ten York schools. We performed 'Be our Guest' with our new friends from Vale of York Secondary School and 'Amazing' by Pink Zebra as part of a huge choir. What an amazing day

Year 5/6

Y56 have had another jam packed week in which we've written biographies of Tudor Queens as well as creating informative water safety posters following an interactive teaching session led by Yorkshire Water. In Maths we've been investigating profit and loss and in Science we've learned all about the heart, blood and our circulation system. We had a brilliant morning of RE drama and workshops with Yoyo. We also let off steam at the field with a fabulous game of Danish long ball and have learned all about hunter gathering in the Stone Age and started to create our own cave paintings! Phew!
