Headteacher's Introduction

Dear parents,

We all had such a lovely day on World Book Day! Those children who wanted to dress up all looked fantastic in their costumes! We had everything from a character from Les Misérables to The Boy in the Dress! Brilliant! On Monday we also had a visit from some drummers - MEG Music. It was brilliant to see (and hear) our children trying out and taking part, in something new.

Thanks to you all for being considerate about foods in school that may cause allergies - we really appreciate your co-operation.

Have a lovely weekend - the weather looks good!

Mrs Durham.

PTA QUIZ NIGHT

The PTA Quiz on Saturday night was a HUGE success! The questions were varied and challenging, the vegetable animal round was hilarious, the pie and pea supper was gorgeous and the drinks flowed!

Thank you so much to Claire Horne and her quiz team helpers, the school are so lucky to have you all.

We believe the final profit is in the region of £750 - incredible!!!

Nut Free

Just a reminder that we are a nut free school, it is REALLY important that no nuts are brought into school – this includes products that contain nuts and products that “may contain traces of nuts”

Thursday 6th March marked the annual celebration of World Book Day. Throughout the day, the children took part in some fantastic events to celebrate our shared love of reading. See the photos further in the newsletter to see what we got up to.

Year 1 Potions - As part of this lesson, the children used their imagination and were in awe of the different changes. Some of our potions became very messy and we loved all of the colours they created.

Taking advantage of the sunshine we had a fun and active morning outside using our wheeled toys.

KS2

We have had a jam-packed week in KS2 this week. We began the week with a Djembe drumming workshop with some York University music students. The children got to improvise their own rhythms and then created some group performances. On Thursday we celebrated World Book Day and our love of reading. We took part in a live, nationwide 'Footy and Booky Quiz' and spotted some very famous faces from the world of football. The children also turned wooden spoons into some of their favourite book characters and I'm sure you'll agree that they looked brilliant!

We have a vacancy for a parent governor following the resignation of our wonderful Dickie Atkinson. Dickie has been a staunch champion of our school over the last few years and we'd like to thank him for his incredible tenacity, encouragement, forthrightness and resolute support for our school. We will miss him, but know his support will continue. Thank you Dickie!

Governors meet once a term and support the Trust and the school to provide strategic oversight and to monitor and support the Head and school regarding performance and improvement. It's an interesting role and a great opportunity for parents to be better informed and more involved with your child's school.

If you are interested, please email me for more information and a nomination form.

Looking forward to welcoming a new parent onto our team!

Anne Clark, Chair of Governors
